Alexandria Gazette

MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20.

SOME THINGS THAT A GIRL CAN DO.—There is a young lady in Louisville whose "bosom friend" recently removed to New York, and of course they were to write long, long letters to each other every week. The Louisville girl received the first letter Saturday and lost it the same day, so she wrote yesterday, and wrote the following: "My dear old Faunie! I have received your sweet letter and lost it. Please forgive me, won't you? I have forgotten your address, and will try to ask you to send it to me immediately, when I will answer your letter, and tell you all my nice things that have happened since you left. Lovingly, your Annie." Whereupon Annie folded her letter, sealed it, and then discovered that she had forgotten Faunie's address. And there is not a drop of ink blood in Annie's veins.
